

WHO NEEDS COLLEGE
ANYMORE?
IMAGINING A FUTURE
WHERE DEGREES
WON'T MATTER

Kathleen deLaski

Founder & Board Chair
Education Design Lab

“Who Needs College Anymore

The Urgency of Alternative Credentialing

KathleendeLaski with Chris Gardiner

Degree enrollment change

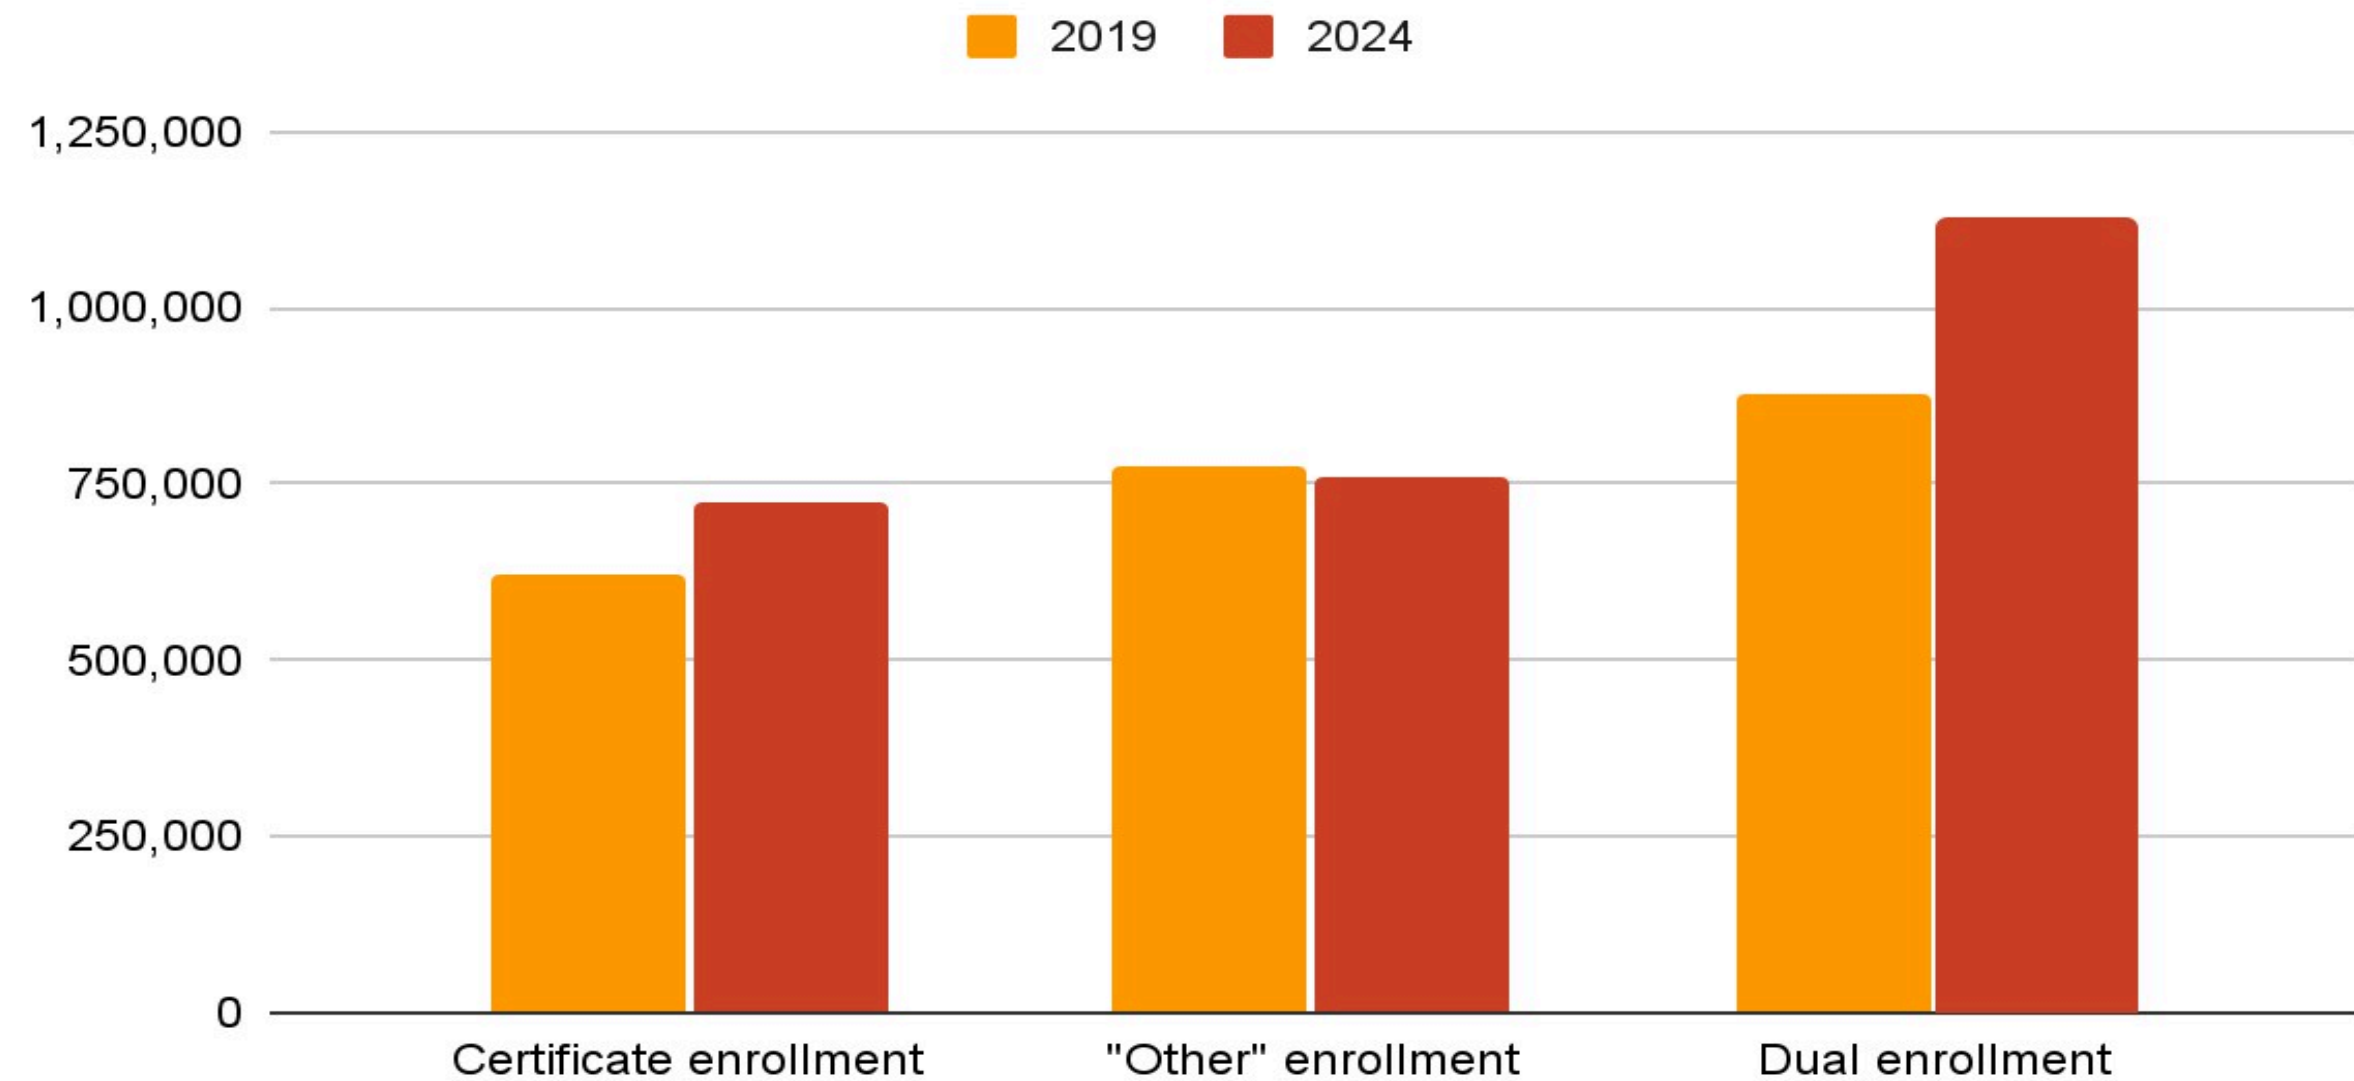

Some institutions are adapting to the change in consumer and employer demand

Certificate enrollment is up 11% between spring 23-24

National Student Clearinghouse, Jan 25

Non-degree enrollment change in community colleges

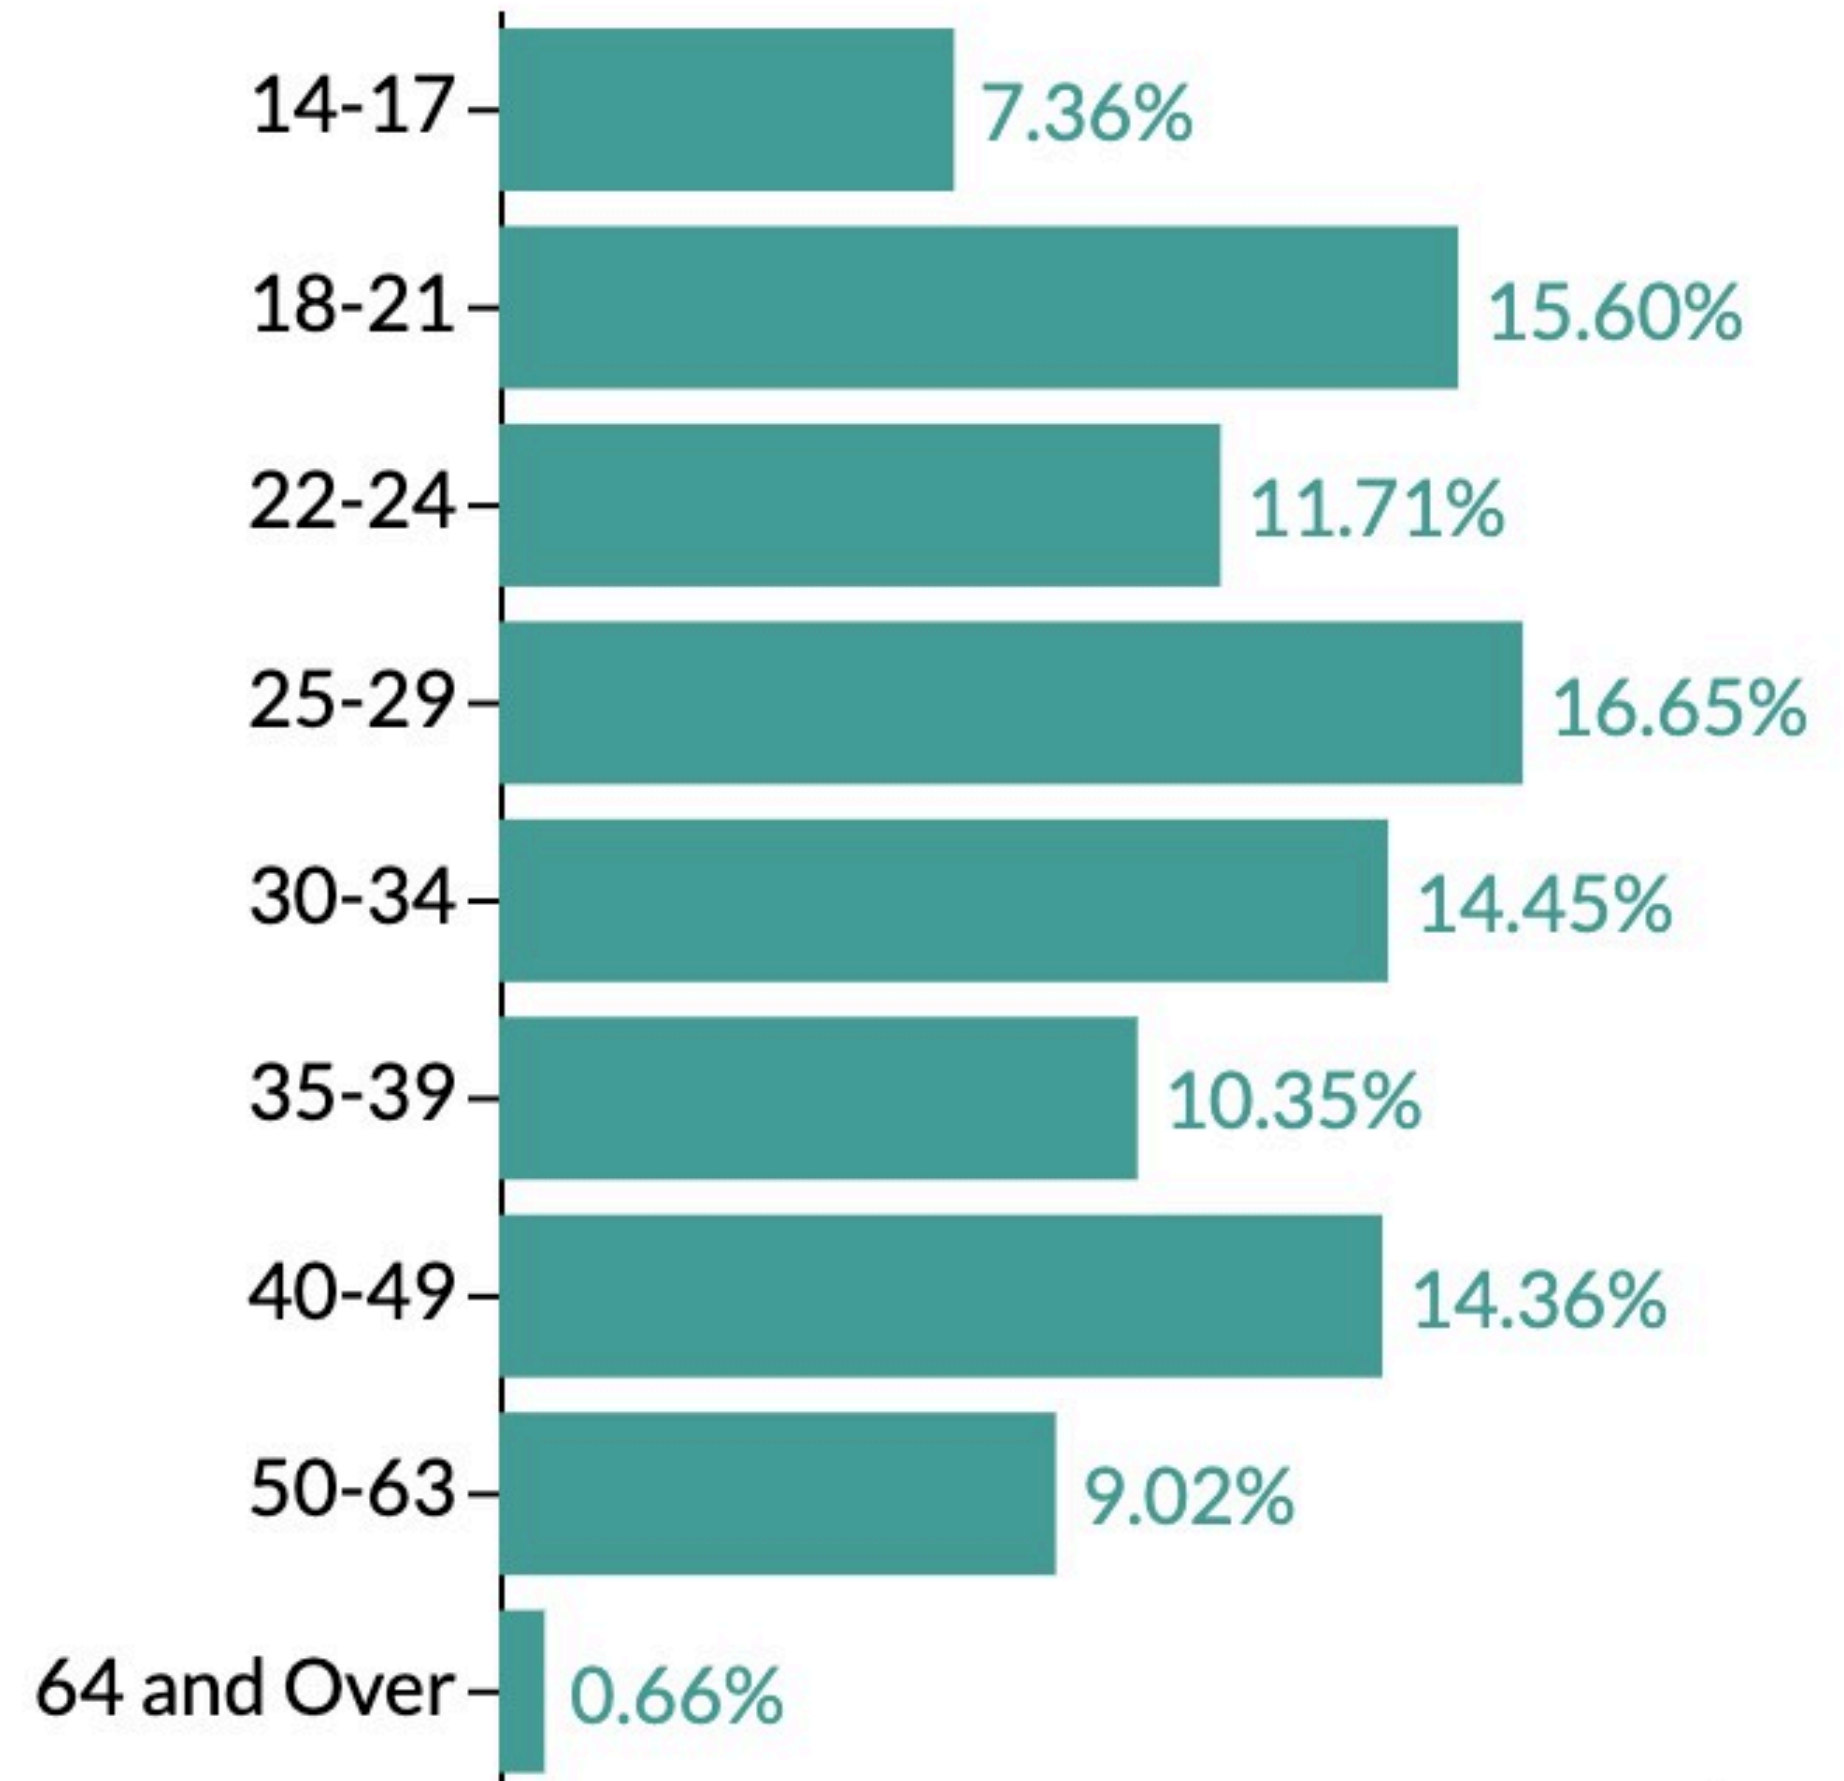

Completers by type of credential (23-24)

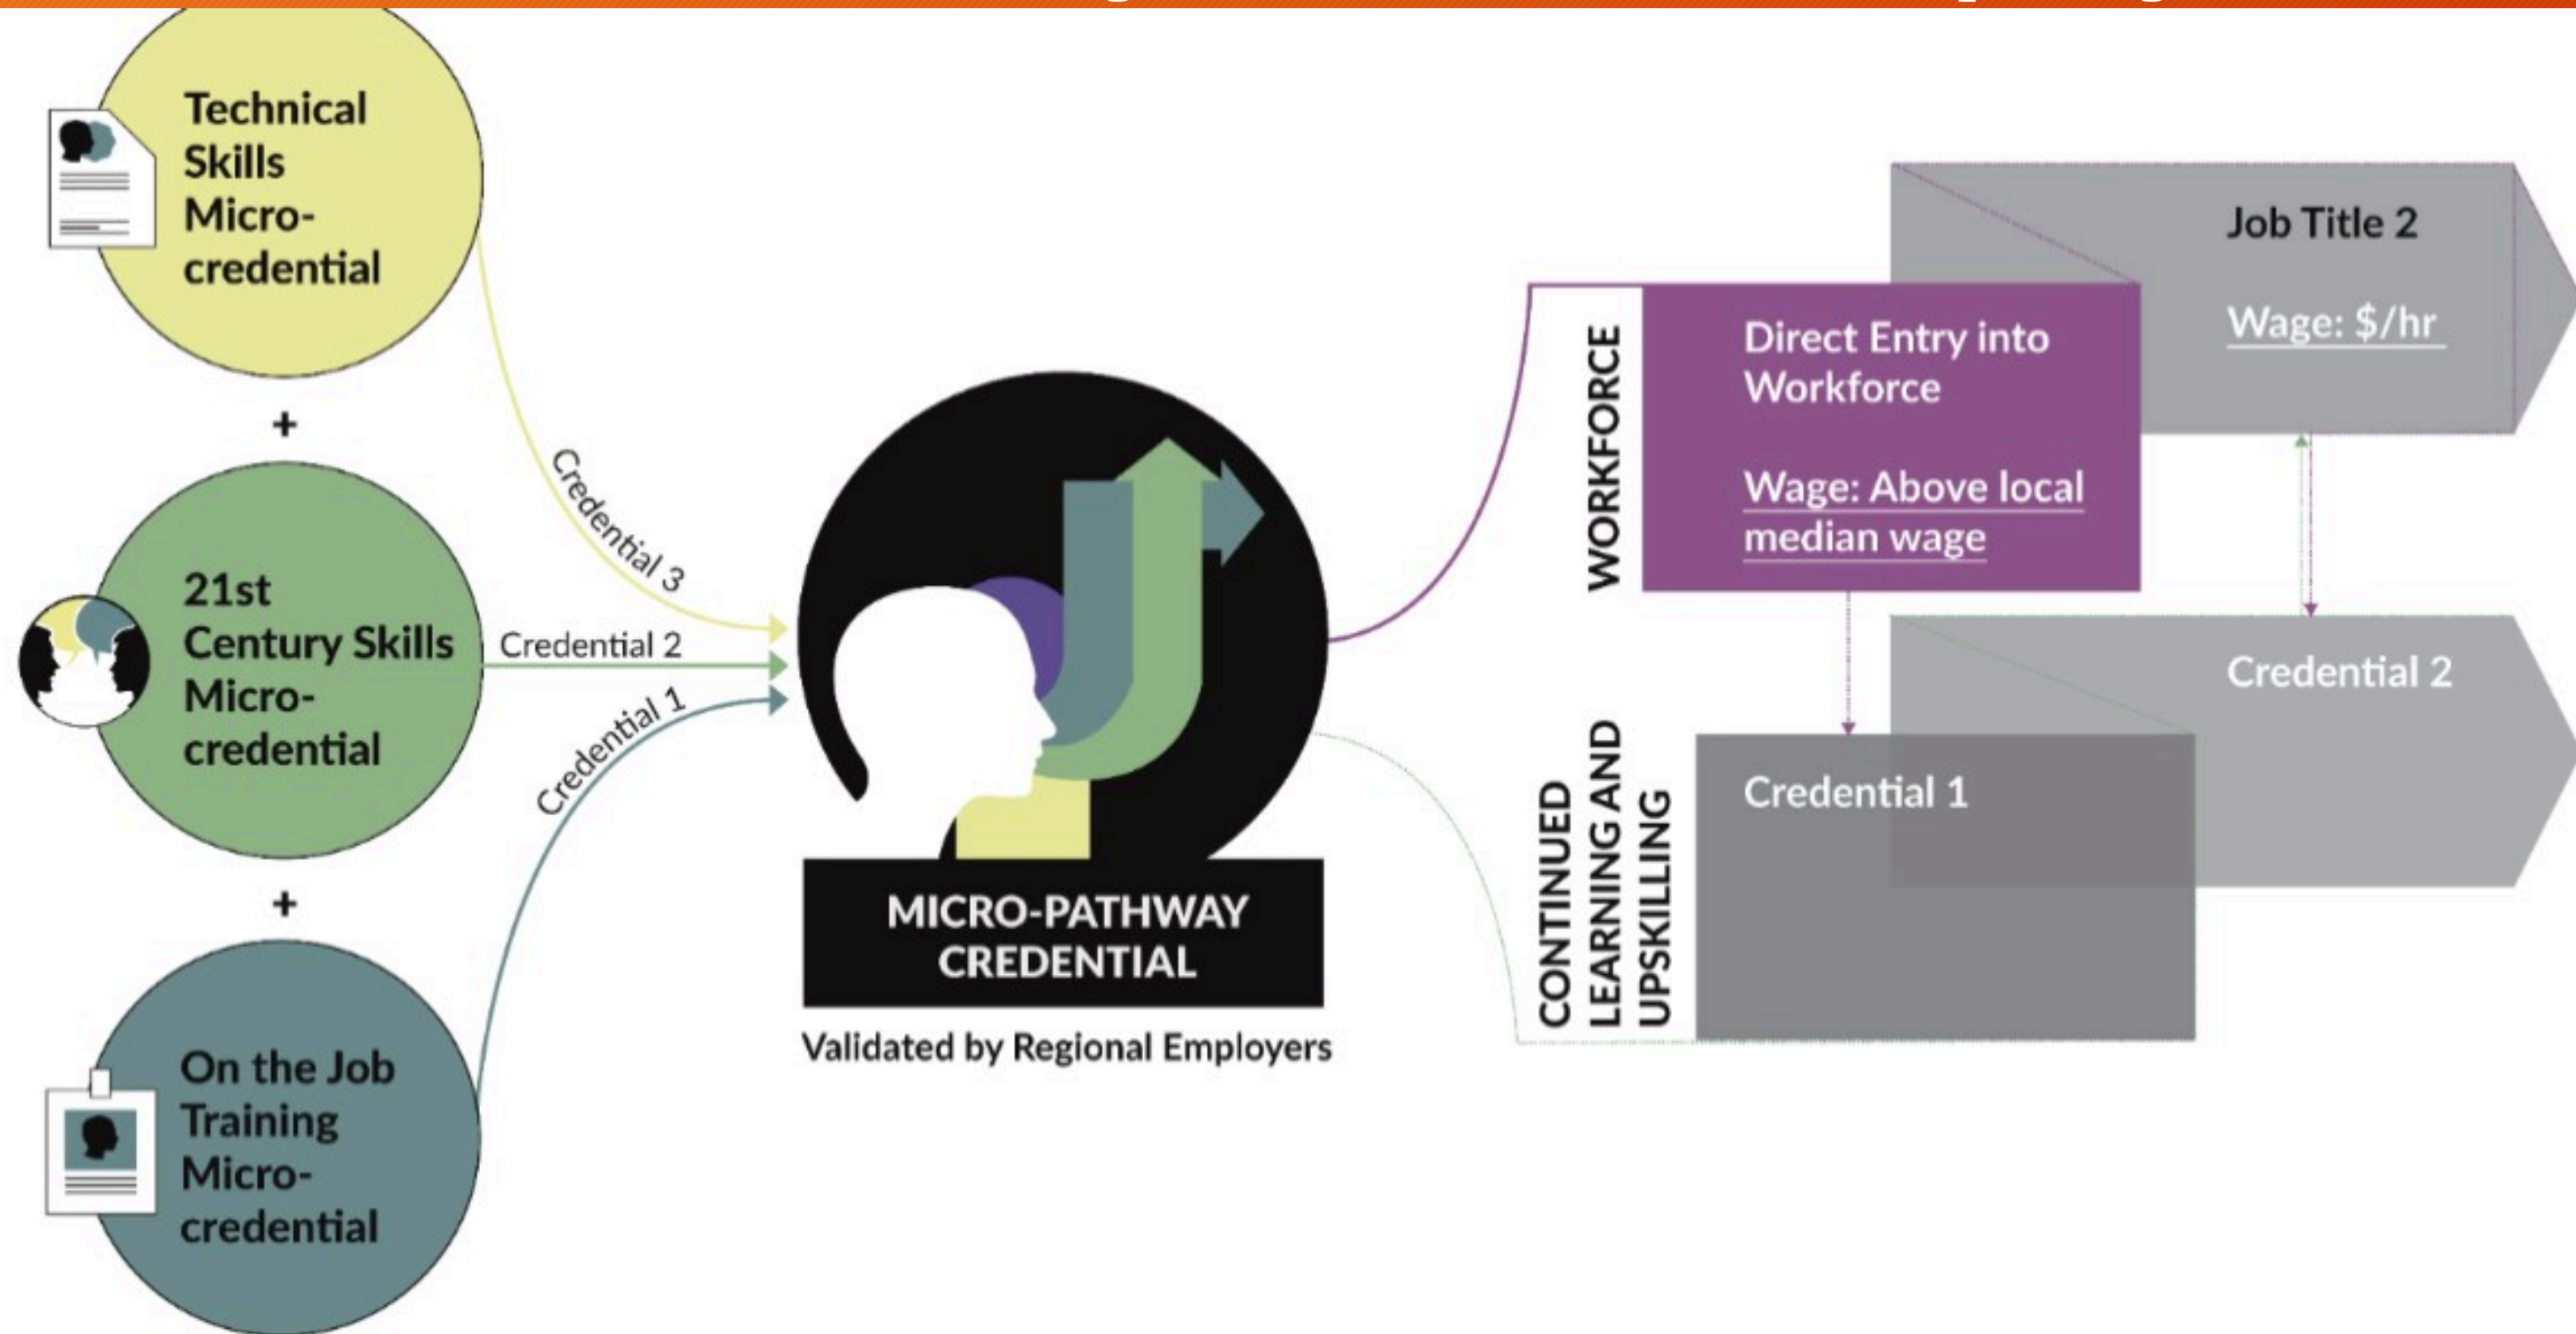

Age Range of “Micro-pathway” enrollees

From Education Design Lab's Data Collaborative

100 Community Colleges are Designing “MicroPathways” w their employers

Early Outcome Data from Indiana Micro-pathways

- Cloud Computing
- Commercial Drivers License
- Smart Digital Manufacturing
- Info Technology Routing and Switching

Average wage increase of 38% after one year

Internal EDL analysis of Data Collab based on participation in the DRF Coleridge Project w State of Indiana. From CCGE Cohort 1, 2021-22.